Bridge Foundation

The Bridge Foundation is driven by evidence-based programmes, compassionate, firm expectations, and a strong vision of the rehabilitation process. At the Bridge Foundation, Caymanians in early recovery learn about the skills and resources needed to establish a strong footing on the solid ground of a robust sober recovery. Their goal is to prepare residents for their new lives as positive contributors to Cayman society.

The Bridge Foundation is registered in Grand Cayman as a certified Section 80 not-for-profit organisation. Currently its West Bay campus serves Caymanians recovering from drug and alcohol addiction. Residents are referred to facilities from the Conditional Release Board, Probation, Drug Court, Caribbean Haven or the Counseling Centre. The Bridge Foundation meets the requirements of U.S. charities under U.S. tax law.

The Bridge Foundation has the anchor house as a 'bridge' to transitional living. The three bedroom, 2,500 sq. ft. sober living home is well furnished, spacious and clean, and equipped with the right structure and resources to facilitate sobriety. Live-in house managers are on-site and present daily to help to help residents learn or relearn life skills, self-care, and enforce standards that promote introspection and staying on the right course. The Bridge Foundation fosters drama-free, healthy sober environments where residents can grow in recovery.

Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS)

DCFS protects and promotes the rights and welfare of children, families, and older persons in the Cayman Islands.

This is accomplished through the professional provision of social work services, services to older persons and those with disabilities, foster care and adoption services, and the placement of vulnerable children in residential homes. These services include preventative measures and interventions, education, advocacy and community-based programmes, all of which serve to empower children and adults, strengthen family bonds and build stronger communities.

Department of Financial Assistance (DFA)

The DFA provides financial assistance to people who find themselves unable to fund their basic needs, such as shelter, food, and clothing. The financial assistance is intended as a short-term measure to provide a temporary bridge to help people get back onto their feet. At the same time, we recognise that older persons, or those with permanent disabilities, may need longer-term support.

The DFA assists those who qualify with services, such as rental accommodation, utilities, food, clothing, medical travel, medical equipment, dental, optical, funeral costs, and assistance for children and youth, such as pre-school assistance and school uniforms.

Eligibility criteria for financial assistance and the application form can be found on the DFA's website.
